About the Summit

The District of Columbia Department of Behavioral Health presents this 4th Annual Summit – a dynamic and informative one-day summit on evidence-based programs that are making a difference for children, youth and families.

Summit attendees can expect to:

- Gain valuable support, guidance, and tools utilized by program experts to help agencies successfully implement these programs and keys to overcoming barriers to access.
- Be a part of the collaboration among peers invested in the promotion and sustainability of evidence-based programs.
- Receive continuing education credits!
